CLINTON PLACE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

This school is dedicated to the development of the youth who attend here, that they may gain in knowledge and understanding.--That they may build a better nation in a better world.

EXPLORER II

1959-1960

THE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
IN ACTION

FOREWORD

The purpose of this yearbook is to credit and express gratitude to deserving persons and personalities and to provide a record which in the years to come, will serve as a memory book of junior high school days.

This 1959 EXPLORER II is an attempt to combine the labors, the fun, the friendships and activities of the class of June 1959 and the class of February 1960 into one volume. It is our aim to present in word and picture a true panorama of the junior high school in action.

Student's Code

I am a young teenager embarking upon adulthood. In order to achieve maturity, I must fulfill my duty to my parents, teachers, friends and to myself, as an individual.

I must:

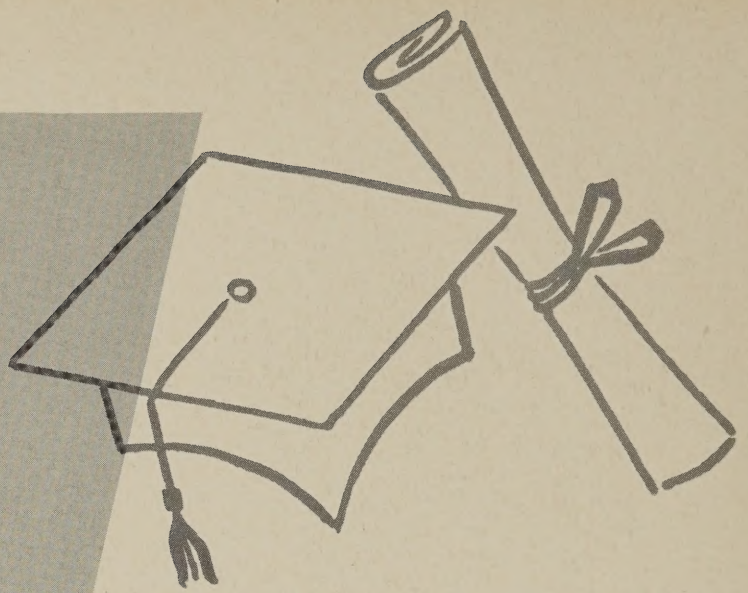

1. Dress appropriately, follow the rules of good posture, speech and manners.
2. Respect all races and religions so that brotherhood and good will can be shared by all people.
3. Appreciate the value of public and private property in order to maintain the high standards of my school and community.
4. Practice the principles of democracy and the rules of my school because they are beneficial to me and my fellow classmates.

I will try to uphold the dignity and pride, the ideals and rules of my school and this code at all times.

Adopted by the Student Council

April 1958

STUDENT'S CODE

With grateful hearts, we the classes of June 1959 and February 1960, wish to dedicate this yearbook to you, the Faculty of Clinton Place Junior High School. Your understanding and never failing interest in our endeavors make us realize as our junior high school days come to a close, how much you mean to us. As a result of your efforts and guidance and teaching we can look back with pleasure and pride in our achievements.

We humbly say thank you and with deep respect and affection dedicate this book to you, our faculty.

DEDICATION

April 28, 1959

Dear Seniors:

Your teachers and I have provided for you those learning experiences essential to your growth. We are proud of the progress you have made. The future belongs to you. Use it wisely so that one day you may take your place as adult members of society and help to build a better nation in a better world.

My sincere good wishes go with you. I am proud to have been your principal.

ALEXANDRA A. SOZIO, Principal

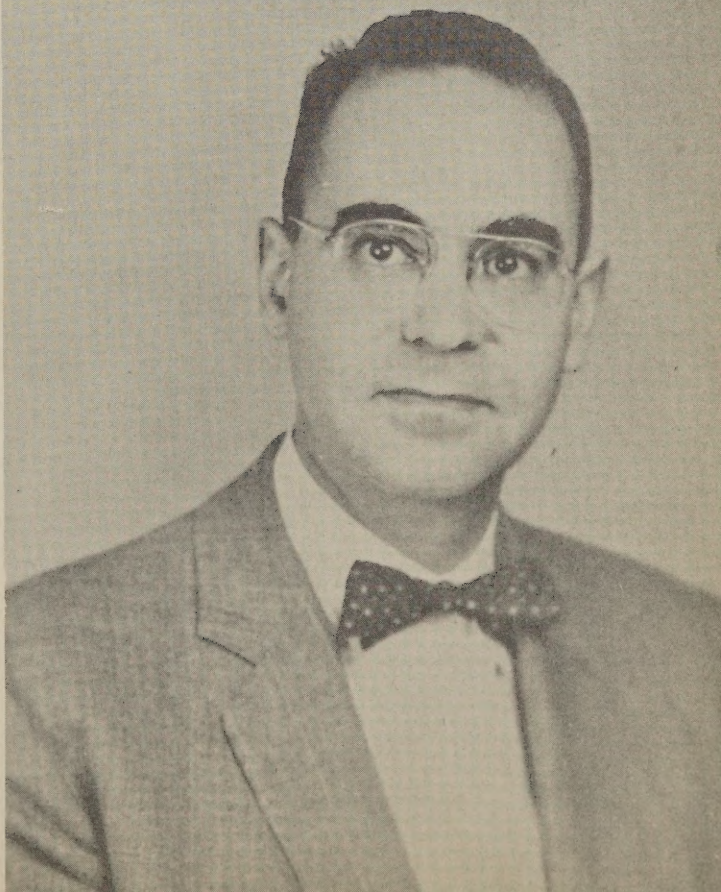

April 28, 1959

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations to you, the ninth grade. We have studied together; together we have helped to build Clinton Place.

A school is more than the sum of its building, faculty and students. You will always be a part of Clinton Place and Clinton Place will always be a part of you. We are proud to have shared in building the educated citizenry of tomorrow.

DAVID A. BLANK, Vice Principal

The classes of June 1959 and February 1960 wish to express their appreciation to their advisors, Mrs. Anne Strome and Mr. Lloyd Adler, 9A advisors and Mr. Michael Pescatore and Mr. Milton Schaeffer, 9B advisors. Because of their continued interest, support, understanding and guidance we feel that we can be proud of our achievements in junior high school. In the years ahead we can relive in memory our happy school days and remember our advisors as our friends. We wish to sum up our thoughts and feelings in two small words, "Thank You."

L'Envoy

Good-bye, but not forever,
Not beyond recall.
For as long as memory serves us
We'll remember one and all.

There was time for fun and laughter
And walking through the halls
And time for serious study
That memory now recalls.

There were games and plays and music
With dancing now and then
There were words of praise and reprimand
And sometimes old llo.

So now we're looking forward
Perhaps to outer space,
But our hearts are bound forever
In our love for Clinton Place.

And as we're moving onward
To what the future must foretell
We pause and glancing backward,
Salute in fond farewell.

Last Will and Testament

WE, the graduating class of June 1959 being of sound mind, though slightly bewildered, draw up this our last will and testament, and leave without reservation our worldly goods, tangible and intangible as follows:—

To Miss Sozio: Our best wishes for many years to come.
To Mr. Blank: We leave the cafeteria and all the rights and privileges thereof.
To Mrs. Keith: We leave the schedules for all the future 9A's to come.
To Mrs. Strome and Mr. Adler: We leave our deep admiration for your help and understanding.
To Mr. Abrams: A copy of Bartletts' Familiar Quotations.
To Mr. Ackerman: This years Art Award.
To Mr. Adler: A basketful of patron pledges.
To Mr. Adinolfi: Chalk and an eraser.
To Mrs. Berardo: An illuminated copy of "Finalandia."
To Mrs. Brown: The bottle of white paint she's always looking for.
To Miss Cohen: A mural of all the gods and goddesses.
To Mr. DiCiancia: More good Latin students.
To Mr. Dultz: A years supply of hamster food.
To Mr. Feld: Copy of record—"I could have danced all nite."
To Mr. Gold: Years supply of Pipe cleaners.
To Mrs. Goldenberg: An alarm clock set at 7:45.
To Mr. McElroy: The proverbial shamrock.
To Mr. Miceli: Peace and quiet.
To Mr. Musky: All the music the orchestra couldn't play.
To Mr. Nevola: A year's supply of traffice violations.
To Mr. Puckowitz: A private secretary to help him with organization cards.
To Mrs. Rayman: The unknown quantity.
To Mr. Rinaldi: Plenty of provolone cheeze.
To Mr. Rothbárd: An account at the Cardinal Tie Shop. (He loves bow ties).
To Mrs. Strome: A calendar of May Firsts.
To Mr. Schaeffer: Two quarts of blood donated by his students who worked on term papers.
To Miss. Scholer: A tape measure to use on the waistlines of the girls in her Gym class.
To Mrs. Torre: Recipes for Party Foods.
To Mr. Van: We leave "le devoir pour demain."
To Mr. Weil: Sponges so he can keep blackboards clean.
To Miss Appel and Miss Friedman: A copy of the book entitled "How to keep 9A's quiet in the library."
To the 9B's: The task of taking our place in the hearts of the faculty and exclusive rights to Room 110.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of February 1960, being of sound adolescent mind and only slightly affected by the "Big Beat," draw up this, our last will and testament, and leave without reservation, our wordly goods, both tangible and intangible as follows:

- To Miss Sozio: Our best wishes for future years.
- To Mr. Blank: A year's supply of flashbulbs and our thanks.
- To Mrs. Keith: New students, new problems, and new schedules.
- To Mr. Pescatore and Mr. Schaeffer: Our gratitude and affection for their well-tried patience and understanding.
- To Mrs. Strome: A veep case for carrying material for the yearbook.
- To Mr. Adler: An aspirin (jumbo size).
- To Mr. Grasso: A can of Simonize for his Thunderbird and a silkworm for a suit.
- To Miss Appel: A year's supply of assorted pencils.
- To Mr. Ackerman: A one man exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art.
- To Mr. Traynor: A book on the art of making locker keys.
- To Mrs. Poll: A new hose for the Garden Club.
- To Mr. Dultz: A large head of lettuce for Hercules.
- To Mr. Weil: A new compass.
- To Mr. Rothbard: A class of good, healthy, wornout boys.
- To Mr. McElroy: A big "M" for the big "M".
- To Mr. Applebaum: A lifetime supply of book covers.
- To Mr. Abrams: A pocketbook of Shakespeare.
- To Mr. Puckowitz: A student council button.
- To Mr. King: A book of experiments.
- To Mr. Schaeffer: New springs for his bounce and an elevator.
- To Mr. Schulman: Larger chalkboards.
- To Mr. Kosofsky: A new microscope.
- To Carangelo: A 1958-D penny.
- To Mr. DiCiancia: Novus Ordo Hominum.
- To Mr. Miceli: A new protractor and ruler.
- To Mr. Murphy: Clean halls and rooms.
- To Mr. Feld: Some future teacher candidates.
- To Mr. Jack: A supply of new hall passes.
- To Mr. Pescatore: A lounging chair for hall duty.
- To Mrs. Friedman: A busy library.
- To Mr. Kirkandal: A new set of microphones.
- To Mr. Musky: A new baton for the orchestra.
- To Mr. Baskerville: A new blackboard pointer.
- To Mrs. Brown: A new set of paints.
- To Mr. Brown: A new seating chart.
- To Mr. Linnon: New detention slips.
- To Miss Kramer: Bright, sunny days in the playground.
- To Mr. Nevola: Singing assembles.
- To The Office Girls: New typewriter ribbons.

THINGS REMEMBERED

ALMA MATER

Nestled in Newark on a busy street,
Stands a school that can't be beat.
Clinton Place the name rings loud
Among the students who are so proud.

Beautiful things all make our school,
One huge diamond a precious jewel.
We're thankful for this place to learn
For in our hearts great pride will burn.

Chorus

Clinton Place Oh Clinton Place,
Your banners raised on high,
We sing to you a song of praise;
Your name will never die.
